

Heather Rachel

Consultant | Speaker | Author

Known for her enthusiasm, persistence and humor, Heather Rachel is committed to taking action to lower your stress and increase profits. With 20 years of success working with clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies like RBC Dain Rauscher, Supervalu and Comcast to mid-size business superstars, Heather has developed a hands-on, straight talk approach through her B.I.G. Plan™ program where your company will be empowered for next-level growth. Her program has boosted retention and grown profits for her customers on average over 20%, as well as delivered a solid strategy for future growth.

Heather Rachel is a graduate of St. Catherine University with a degree in Professional Sales. She is an entrepreneur, author and professional speaker who delivers powerful keynotes, training, and workshops that inspire business owners and employees to take action in the areas of corporate culture & productivity and professional success.

